Thank all those who made the first Clean up event a Success!! Beautification City Litter Clean up was a HUGE success, 14 Volunteers not including our Committee, 113 lbs of trash was collected, 22 tires if not more, considering a trailer was full of them. Thank you to Andy at Zee Mart for the water and Ice, Councilman, AJ Jinkins for serving the BBQ Sandwiches and use of his hot dog cart, Keep Texas Beautiful for donating Cleaning supplies, Marshal Dept Karem & Khristin, and Zoe for Cleaning 6 Historical Markers. Council Members Glenn Jordan and Corey Thomas for picking up Tires, and Corey for cooking the brisket. Congratulations on the raffle winners: Justin (Adult) and Santiago (child). We raised $40 with raffle tickets too. Every little bit counts and we will get together soon for planning for our Spring clean up, National Historical Marker day on April 28th, host spring clean up on April 29, 2023. Also check into Tire take back as well as collecting paint. We can ask AJ to do hot dogs too.

Event to be held at the Presbyterian Church across from the Fire station. Items to sell would be chili & cheese nachos (chips), or Frito pie items, Pickles, Baked goods & Drinks. Decorating tractors, side by sides, cars/trucks, and pop up tents for free, but if you would like to enter to win a prize, it would be a set cost of $5/$10 per entry, possibly a 50/50 win or a gift card if we can get something donated for the prize, maybe $100 or $150. Raffle on the side, to bring in more. Members will reach out for more donation items for this event. Caramel Apples, hot apple cider, some sort of apple dish to drizzle caramel, with toppings. Possible child costume contest. Discussion on date of the event which was agreed upon for Saturday, October 29, 2022, times still pending but possibly 7-9 PM. Another meeting to finalize these items prior to event, Wednesday, October 5, 2022 at Noon.

7. FUTURE AGENDA ITEMS

New Committee members to appoint, please reach out to Mrs. Williamson to make her aware that she will no longer be a member, due to her not available to attend meetings.
